This solo exhibition examines the artistic dialogue between the artist and his muses from Southern California to New York. The exhibition showcases Lance Chang's artwork created coast-to-coast, from dancers on pointe above Lake Hollywood to ballerinas pirouetting in Central Park, with a special appearance by Los Angeles-based ballerina Stephanie Hall. As one of our invited guests, come and enjoy art, champagne and chocolate with VIPs from Beverly Hills and the surrounding art and cultural hubs from WeHo/NoHo. The exhibition is organized by ACCA and has been reviewed by renowned art critic Peter Frank who wrote an essay about Chang's practice.
